

Mishpat Ivri

A THREE-PART SERIES

This exciting series will explore the relationship between Mishpat Ivri (Jewish law and values) and the Israeli legal system.

Over the course of three Shabbatot we will have the opportunity to hear lectures from world renowned experts, who are also members of our Bayit community.

Co-sponsored by the Israeli Supreme Court Project at Cardozo Law School.

Learn more and sponsor at www.thebayit.org/mishpativri

EVERYONE IS WELCOME

Hebrew Institute of Riverdale -
The Bayit
3700 Henry Hudson Parkway,
Bronx, NY 10463
718.796.4730
www.thebayit.org

June
8:15 PM

2

What is Mishpat Ivri? Academic Understanding and Personal Reflections

Adiel Zimran and Daniel Feit

Adiel Zimran received a Ph.D in philosophy from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem in 2016, and is currently a postdoctoral fellow at NYU School of Law. Adiel has an LLB from the Law Faculty of the Hebrew U., and he was a clerk at the Supreme Court of Israel.

When not functioning as shul president, Daniel Feit is a lawyer for Macquarie Bank. He previously clerked for former Justice Menachem Elon, at the Supreme Court of Israel.

June
8:20 PM

9

Refugee Status in Israel - Strategic Ambiguity and its Human and Legal Prices

Rivka Weill

Rivka Weill is a Professor of Law at the Radzyner Law School, Interdisciplinary Center (IDC), Israel. In Spring 2018, Rivka was a Visiting Law Professor at Yale Law School. Rivka was a clerk and legal adviser for the former president of the Supreme Court of Israel, Aharon Barak.

June
8:25 PM

23

From the Kotel to Eurovision: Case Studies of Conflict

Yair Ettinger

Yair Ettinger served as a journalist with Ha'aretz for 20 years until 2017, covering religious affairs. He is a researcher at the Hartman Institute in NY and at the Israel Democracy Institute.

Shabbat Afternoon • Between Mincha & Maariv